3898. SHRI BALWANT SINGH RAMOOWALIA:
SHRI B.J. PANDA:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item published in "The Tribune" dated the 12th April, 2002 captioned 'USA Unveils New Visa Rules';

(b) if so, the details of the revised rules governing visas for businessmen, tourists and students to enhance homeland security and to strengthen/control immigration;

(c) whether the US Immigration and Naturalisation Service has also made any changes to the standards for extension of stay, limiting the conditions under which a B visitor can obtain an extension under 'Unexpected or compelling humanitarian reasons' if so, the details thereof; and

(d) the measures Government propose to take to redress the grievances of Indian visitors?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI OMAR ABDULLAH): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) As per the information available with the Ministry of External Affairs, the main change implemented so far relates to student visas. The individuals who wish to study in the United States of America must now obtain student visas abroad or must have been designated as a "prospective student" before admission to the United States. Change of status to "student" will no longer be permitted within the United States unless the applicant was designated a "prospective student" before entry into the US.

Other proposed changes are regarding the length of stay of the traveller which are still under consideration of the US Government.

(d) The formulation of the visa policy is a sovereign right of any Government. Government will study the new visa regulations as and when they are implemented and determine the course of action accordingly.
